

MALAYSIAN PARKINSON'S DISEASE ASSOCIATION
PUBLIC FORUM ON PARKINSON'S DISEASE,
SYUEN HOTEL, IPOH, PERAK
SATURDAY, 13TH OCTOBER 2012.

SPEAKERS' PROFILE

Prof. Dr. Lim Shen-Yang

Prof. Dr. Lim Shen-Yang is a Neurologist and Professor at the University of Malaya. He earned his medical degree from the University of Melbourne, and underwent Fellowship training in Toronto. Prof. Dr. Lim has numerous publications in prestigious medical journals and books and delivered numerous lectures, locally and abroad, on Parkinson's Disease.

He is also a Medical Advisor to the Malaysian Parkinson's Disease Association, and a founding member of the Malaysian Movement Disorder Subspecialty Council. He was the Chairperson of the 2012 Malaysian PD Treatment Guidelines.

Tarun Amalnerkar

Tarun Amalnerkar graduated with a Bachelor of Physical Therapy followed by a Master Degree in Neurology (Physiotherapy) from the "Devi Ahilya University", Indore {Madhya Pradesh} India. He is currently the Assistant Coordinator of the Department of Physiotherapy, Faculty of Allied Health of the college in Ipoh.

He is a member of the Indian Association of Physiotherapy. He has written articles for several health magazines in Malaysia.

Ms. Lau

Ms. Lau, 43, is a person with young onset Parkinson's Disease. She was diagnosed with Parkinson's at the age of 37.

She is married with three children and lives in Ipoh with her family.

Samuel Ng

Samuel Ng, 47, was diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease at the age of 42. He was living in his hometown, Ipoh, where he worked for a top pharmaceutical company. His associates and friends knew him to be one of the most active persons around. He was also into healthy living, which meant he subscribed to a balanced diet, exercised regularly and never touched a cigarette.

Parkinson's dealt him a big blow and his world came crashing down following the diagnosis. Today, Samuel is an active PD advocate and thinks about helping others like himself. He still lives in Ipoh with his lovely wife, Christine and children Gibson, 20, and Rachel, 17, the greatest treasures in his life.

INTERPRETER'S PROFILE

Dr. Tan Ai Huey

Prof. Dr.Lim's talk on "Parkinson's Disease - Recent Development" will be followed by a segment in Mandarin by Dr. Tan Ai Huey.

Dr. Tan is a Neurology Specialist at the University of Malaya Medical Center (UMMC). She earned her basic medical degree at the National University of Malaysia (UKM) and was recently admitted to the Membership of Royal College of Physician (MRCP) (UK).